

Library PressDisplay - en canadisk base, der giver adgang til ca. 250 aviser fra over 50 forskellige lande

Side 1: Sådan finder man en avis

In the center, there is a "Select Newspaper" dropdown menu with a "Please select" prompt. Below it, a "By Country" dropdown menu is open, showing a list of countries including Argentina, Aruba, Australia, Austria, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Belgium, Brazil, Bulgaria, Canada, China, Colombia, Croatia, Czech Republic, Denmark, Ecuador, El Salvador, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Guatemala, Hungary, Iceland, India, International, Ireland, Israel, Italy, Japan, Jordan, Kenya, Korea (South), Lebanon, Liechtenstein, Luxembourg, Macedonia, and Malaysia. A pink callout bubble points to this menu with the text: "Søg en avis efter land/sprog/eller afabetisk".

Below the country list, there is a "Charity to offer des" section with a link to "The Daily Telegraph". Other links include "Police, Camera, Act", "The Journal", "Snakes on a plane, Seattle Times | US", "Upcoming arts ever", "Seattle Times | US", and "Jet Flight Terror Wo", "Daily Star | UK". A pink callout bubble points to this section with the text: "Konstant opdatering af nyheder".

On the right side, there is a "Search" button and a "Sign out" link. A pink callout bubble points to the search area with the text: "Søg efter emne her. Et klik på Search giver adgang til ADVANCED SEARCH". Below the search area, there is a "Daily Mail" advertisement for a "FREE DVD" with the headline "I WISH I'D DIED". A pink callout bubble points to this advertisement with the text: "Husk at det er engelske betegnelser. Fx findes England under UK Hviderusland under Belarus De forenede Arabiske Emirater under UAE".

At the bottom right, there is a copyright notice: "© NewspaperDirect, Inc.".

La sortie ratée de Zidane
BIEN SÛR qu'il aurait rêvé d'une autre fin. Ce matin, Zinédine Zidane n'est plus footballeur, pas champion du monde pour la seconde fois et a fini sa carrière sur une expulsion en prolongation de Coupe.
